RALCO AT 5 TO 1 DEFEATS VALOR, ODDS ON FAVORITE

Isip Stable Entry Finishes a Length in Front in Aqueduct Feature.

By Vincent Treanor.

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, June 27.—The Myrtle Selling Stakes, the feature of this afternoon's racing, proved an upset for the followers of the favorites, when Ralco, coming from behind at the eighth pole, out-gamed the odds-on-choice, Valor, from there to the finish. Ralco, at 5 to 1, was more or less overlooked in the oral market, due to a big play on the favorite, Paddy Whack. Ballet Dancer and David Harum.

Valor was at the front early, and turning home seemed to have the race won, but when Ralco began charging on him and Sande went to the whip the Rancocas horse weakened. Ralco won by a length. Ballet Dancer was a distant third and the others were well strung out. The Rancocas Stable bid Ralco up from $2,000 and got him for $5,000. Jynice was made a 4 to 5 favorite in the third, but she didn't get away well and as a result she ran in second behind Miss Petite. This one running in the Quincey colors, got an old fashioned still ride by Joe Mooney. He told him to catch the firing packer. Actress, at the eighth pole, and to stick it out to beat the fast-moving Jynice. It was a popular victory judging by the applause which greeted Mooney on his return to the stable. Bullman who rode the favorite, Jynice, didn't return to the scales. In pulling up after the finish his mount ran into the paddock fence and the youngster's leg was badly hurt. The three-year-old race, second on the programme, was scratched down to three horses. Sporting Blood, Dimmesdale and Faunus, and they ran in that order. It was a tight squeeze at the end, however, for Sporting Blood at 1 to 3, justifiably won by a nod. Dimmesdale, on his bad behavior at the post, finally got away moving and set the pace until well into the stretch, where Sporting Blood nailed him. Faunus had early speed but dropped out of it after the first quarter.

They ran right to form in the opening event, or rather as the betting indicated, Rose Brigade first. Lady Delhi second and Kirtle third. It was a two-year-old event, and Sande celebrated his return after a two days' suspension by winning all the way with the odds-on choice, Rose Brigade. Lady Delhi didn't have her usual early foot, but she had all her gameness and at the end she had Rose Brigade driving and tiring. She was four lengths in front of the third horse, Kirtle.

CALLS ON DOCTORS TO HELP REPEAL VOLSTEAD LAW

ATLANTIC CITY, June 27.—The doctors of the country were called upon to-day to unite in an effort to repeal the Volstead act, by Dr. W. Wallace Fritz of Philadelphia, President of the Allied Medical Association of America, at the organization's convention.

"The medical profession should not permit itself to be placed in a position before the whole world as liquor salesmen," he said.

"The Prohibition Law has taken away pure liquor and substituted poison. It is causing gambling and immorality in the homes. It is causing death after death of the innocent public. It is causing blindness by the score."

GREAT COAL STRIKE IN ENGLAND ENDS; AGREEMENT SIGNED

LONDON, June 27 (Associated Press).—A provisional agreement was reached this evening by the striking coal miners and the mine owners by which the coal strike, which has been in progress some three months, will terminate. The men will resume work next week.

PEACE RESOLUTION COMPROMISE MADE

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Terms of a compromise agreement on the Knox-Porter resolutions to end the state of war with Germany and Austria have been settled. Republican leaders said to-day.

Formal acceptance is expected at a meeting of the conference to-morrow after the return of Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, author of the Senate Peace Resolution.

KELLY HITS 11TH HOMER.

PHILADELPHIA, June 27.—George Kelly, first sacker of the New York Giants, who at the beginning of the season ran Ruth a close race for home run honors, hit his eleventh circuit clout of the season in the seventh inning of to-day's game against the Quakers. There was one man on base at the time. Up to this stanza the Phillies led 1 to 7.

NO RAIN; ENDS LIFE; DELUGE DROUGHT ENDS JUST AFTER DELUGE

Fearing his crops were a failure because of lack of rain, Charles Wentz, fifty-four, a farmer near Plainfield, N. J., committed suicide yesterday. Three hours later heavy showers fell. Wentz found his husband's body lying in a pool of rain water.

RICKARD GIVES $500,000 CHECK FOR BIG FIGHT TO EDGREN AS STAKEHOLDER

Duly Certified by Trust Company, It Is Deposited Ahead of Time.

IS BIGGEST RING PRIZE. Dempsey to Get $300,000 and Carpenter $200,000—Final Plans for Bout.

By Robert Edgren.
Tex Rickard has put half a million dollars in his hands as stakeholder for the Dempsey-Carpenter match. He drew a $500,000 check on the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, payable to his order, and when I took the check to the bank they immediately certified it.

This is the biggest check ever drawn in connection with any sporting event in the history of the world. When I met Rickard by appointment at his office in Madison Square Garden, he said:

"As evidence of good faith, I don't care to wait until twenty-four hours before the fight to post the money with you. You can have it now, and make your own arrangements for paying off Dempsey and Carpenter when they have fulfilled their contract."

BALLPLAYERS' TRIAL POSTPONED AGAIN

Adjournment Taken Until Wednesday Because of Illness of Two of the Accused.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The much delayed trial of the eight former White Sox players and alleged gamblers charged with conspiracy to throw the 1919 World's Series with the Cincinnati Reds was postponed again to-day.

The trial, which was scheduled to start to-day, was put off until Wednesday because of the illness of Ben Franklin and Carl Zerk, St. Louis, alleged gamblers. Attorneys for the two men were ordered to have their clients in court Wednesday.

Seven of the accused ball players were in court. Fred McMullin's attorney stated that the former player was now a sign painter in San Francisco and lacked the funds to get to Chicago. In court were Eddie Cicotte, "Lefty" Williams, Joe Jackson, "Chick" Gandil, "Buck" Weaver, "Swede" Risberg and "Happy" Felsch.

NON-STOP FLYERS PAST PRESCOTT

Hopped Off From Riverside, Cal., At 6 O'Clock—Want to Reach Mineola in 24 Hours.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., June 27.—David H. Davis and Eric Springer of Los Angeles left March Field here at 5 A. M. to-day on an attempted transcontinental non-stop aerial flight. They reached Yuma, Ariz., at 9:05, flying at a high altitude.

The big plane circled March Field several times, climbing higher until it reached an altitude of about 4,000 feet. At 6:05 the aviators slipped a signal "good-by" and headed in the direction of El Paso. There was no cloud in the sky and no sign of wind. The plane had been lightened to about 2,000 pounds.

Before the start Davis said he would make every effort to land at Mineola, N. Y., in twenty-four hours. He hoped to breakfast in New York to-morrow morning.

They were flying at an altitude of about 6,000 feet.

"HYSTERICAL CONFESSION" BY MRS. STILLMAN STRICKEN FROM RECORD BY REFEREE

Banker's Wife Wins Big Point When All Testimony of Dr. Russell Is Thrown Out—Letter From Fred Beauvais Also Barred as Evidence

All the testimony of Dr. Hugh Russell, the Buffalo osteopath, as to the alleged "confession" he swore Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman made to him that Fred Beauvais was the father of her expected child, now Guy Stillman, has been ordered stricken from the record of Mr. Stillman's divorce action by Referee Daniel J. Gleason.

H. A. C. TAYLOR'S PERSONAL ESTATE UNDER $15,000,000

PORTSMOUTH, R. I., June 27.—The will of Henry A. Colt Taylor, New York financier, was filed here to-day. The petition said the personal estate would not exceed $15,000,000.

The widow receives residences in New York and Newport and the income of $3,500,000, and a daughter, Countess Della Cheradise, of Italy, receives $200,000 and participates in a $2,000,000 trust fund. Two sons, Henry R. and Moses, are residuary legatees.

Provision is made for bequests ranging from $10,000 to $15,000 for servants.

SCHEDULES FIXED FOR CONCERTS ON RECREATION PIERS

A schedule of popular concerts on the recreation piers, which were opened through the efforts of Miss Sophie Irene Loeb of The Evening World, was mapped out this afternoon at a meeting called by the Mayor at the City Hall.

The concerts will be given on Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday evenings, beginning next Wednesday. They will last from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock. The bands are assigned as follows: Barrow Street, Street Cleaning Department Band; West 10th, Fire Department Band; West 129th, Police Band; East Third, Police Band; East 112th, Street Cleaning Department Band; North Second Street, Brooklyn Fire Department Band.

ONLY 4 MINUTES TO FIND PRISONER GUILTY OF MURDER

A jury in the Court of General Sessions to-day rendered a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree against Julius Rosenberg exactly four minutes after the members had left the jury box for deliberation. This is the record for New York State.

Rosenberg and two others killed Jacob Mayzura in Rosenberg's home on Jan. 29, in robbing him of $2,000, the savings of a lifetime. The trial consumed three court days. Judge Talley will sentence Rosenberg to death next Monday.
